Jackalyn Brannan, owner of Evolution Krav Maga, will be presenting a short self defense demo that we strongly encourage you to see and/or participate in.

After some unfortunate events in her life, Jackalyn has decided to react to these events by providing positive outcomes for other women with female only classes available to empower women.

Evolution Krav Maga is a self defense school that not only teaches techniques, but mindset of an attacker, situational awareness and tactics to enable confidence and self worth.

Please dress casual if you wish to participate in the demo.

Looking forward to an empowering Event
